PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 19, 1863.

The Enrollment Law.

The dispatch to-day reports much disaffection and rage among the Copperheads of Indiana because of the prospect that the conscription is likely to be speedily enforced, and we are glad to notice, also, that vigorous measures were instantly taken to quell the disorder, and compel the cowardly traitors to submit to the majesty of the law. Whatever views may have been entertained by loyal men as to the expediency of the law, prior to its enactment,—and we admit that there was an honest difference of opinion,—it is now a binding statute, and its operation can only be hindered or obstructed by lawless insurrection or mobs in mutiny. These ought not to be tolerated for an instant, and we trust that the Government will be prompt to assert its supremacy wherever the first indication of resistance is manifested. Such Executive action is in our judgment a thousand fold more important and vital than the arrest and confinement of all noisy and venomous Vallandighams in the land. Their words may be treasonable—yet they are only cowardly talk, and can influence but few—not so, however, is the organized resistance to a valid act of Congress, upon the faithful execution of which depends the vitality and strength of the Army of the Republic. We hope, therefore, the Government will maintain itself without flinching, no matter where the opposition may be shown, or how strongly and bitterly it may manifest its disposition thus to weaken the power of the nation and to strengthen the iniquity of the rebellion. It ought to be settled at once whether the Government has any power in the loyal States, or those nominally so, for if it has not, it is idle to talk of crushing and defeating Secession in those where its majesty is utterly defied and set at naught.

From the Spokane Country.—Judge B. F. Yantis and Maj. G. C. Blankenship arrived in this city yesterday, from the Spokane country, from whom we learn that the mining prospects in the vicinity of the Pen d'Oreille and Upper Columbia rivers are very good,—many of the bars on the Columbia paying from $4 to $12 a day to the hand. Miners are at work at different points all the way from Priests' Rapids to the mouth of the Pen d'Oreille, a distance of some 200 miles. The principal machinery used in separating the gold from the sand and gravel is a kind of sluice called "Beach Machine," through which a stream of water is run about half or three fourths the size of a common sluice-head. The gold is mostly very fine flour gold, requiring the use of quicksilver and much care to save it, though it is of good quality and sells here at $16 per ounce. Plenty of claims can be found in that region that will pay fair wages. The Indians are all quiet around Colville, but some of them make bitter and no doubt just complaints of the bad treatment they receive from the whites. Judge Yantis and Major Blankenship return to their camp in a few days, being only down for the purpose of purchasing supplies.

Puget Sound Collector.—A Washington letter in the Sacramento Union states that "the name of Dr. L. C. Gunn, Deputy Surveyor of the Port of San Francisco, has been substituted for that of Fred. A. Wilson, as Collector of the Puget Sound District. This was done in consequence of a strong pressure from the Treasury Department, which preferred Gunn to Wilson." From what we hear of Dr. Gunn, who was warmly recommended for the Naval Office in San Francisco, two years ago, we believe he will be a faithful and competent officer, and will not become a tool of the Surveyor General of that Territory, who seems to suppose that he has a right to dictate to every other officer there what course of conduct or opinion shall be followed. And if we have been correctly informed as to certain acts of Mr. Wilson in exchanging coin for greenbacks while Clerk of the District Court, pocketing the profits himself, we are very glad that he is not to have the opportunity of extending his speculations, and following the example of other officials on this coast, whose conduct in this respect the Treasury Department will soon have an opportunity to investigate.

Special Agent Brown, whose report slaughtered so many of the California office holders, is again coming to the Pacific, and will accompany Dr. Gunn, when he takes possession of his office.

From Boise.—The Journal publishes a letter written at Bannock City on the 6th inst., which gives glowing accounts of the richness and extent of the mines in that vicinity. One claim was sold for $10,000 cash, and cheap at that. Excellent quartz leads were found, and much excitement existed in regard to a lode discovered about eighty miles from Bannock City. James Hickey, a reputed horse-thief, was killed by Andrew McKay at Placerville, under circumstances that were believed to justify the act. Emigrants from Pike's Peak were beginning to arrive, and they reported that large numbers were on their way from Denver.

The Copperheads Awake—Cry for McClellan.—Immediately after the return of General Hooker to the north bank of the Rappahannock the peacemongers and copperheads of the East renewed the cry for McClellan.—They were thus answered by the New York Times:

We can tell the imps of faction who are shrieking for the restoration of McClellan that their wind is wasted. The thing cannot and will not be done. The Government has not lost its memory nor the people their senses. There is no intelligent purpose yet to save this nation. There is a firmer resolve than ever to trust to agents equal to that end and to those only. There is no more possibility that George B. McClellan, after the experience had of him, should be called back to the head of the army, than that James Buchanan should be called back to the Executive Chair. The people have bidden a grim good night to all imbeciles.

Since the reader may be curious to know precisely what the Copperheads professed to want, the following contribution to the New York Express, of May 8th, is reproduced as a specimen brick:

To the Editors of the New York Express: Amid the repeated reverses and defeat of our national arms through mismanagement and imbecility it is high time for the nation, both at home and in the army, to make such public demands as will lead to the restoration to command of the Army of the Potomac of their able and faithful leader, Major General George B. McClellan. Let public meetings be held in New York, Brooklyn and elsewhere, and demand the following:

First—The restoration of General McClellan to the chief command, untrammeled and unfettered.

Second—The advance on Richmond via the James river, where supplies can be readily furnished.

Third—Then call upon the loyal people of the Union to rally as in 1861, as volunteers, for all necessary men and appliances to speedily put down the rebellion.

Fourth—Let the President proclaim that the Conscription Act shall not be enforced, but rather remain a dead letter in the same grave with Confiscation and Emancipation Acts, never to rise again.

Fifth—Remove every member of the Cabinet, and select new men who are competent to the work.

Sixth—Discard and forbid the further arrests of the citizens without due process of law.

Seventh—Give the utmost liberty of the press and speech to canvass all and every public act of any of the officers of the Government or army.

Eighth—Give the public full reports of all acts and doings not only of the army, but of the Government, when not incompatible with the public interests.

Ninth—Restore Fitz John Porter and Wm. B. Franklin to active duty again.

And when these are done, Governor Seymour can call upon the great Empire State for 200,000 men, and they will be forthcoming, and history will give us a brilliant record in vindication of the constitutional authorities of the Government.

The successful termination of the war requires that meetings should be held, and that the demands of the people should be respected. Come one, come all to the rescue. Viva la McClellan shall be our watchword, and the country must and shall be saved.

JUSTICE.

What the Rebels Think of Vicksburg.—Of the importance of permanently holding the positions on the Mississippi river, the Jackson Appeal truthfully remarks:

The enemy that is now making such herculean efforts to wrest the river from us are fully aware of the great advantage to them and the inestimable detriment to us that such a result would work out. Besides, they also know what depressing results would follow a failure on their part to accomplish this cherished scheme, and hence they are bending all their energies to its accomplishment. Their efforts should and must be thwarted. If necessary, Gen. Pemberton should be furnished with one hundred thousand men to beat them back. Such a force would be required only for about the space of two months, after which time the heats of Summer and low water will do our fighting for us.

Our hold upon the Mississippi once wrested from us, it is gone forever, or at least so long as the war shall continue, which would isolate the Government from the West, cut off all intercourse, and place us at a disadvantage when we shall enter upon the adjustment of terms of peace. A great deal has been said about guaranteeing the free navigation of the river to the North-west, but with what plausibility could our Government come forward with such a proposition when the river, with all its fortifications erected by the Confederacy, is already in their possession? Of course they would laugh at such a proposition coming from us under such circumstances, and hence it is of the first importance that our present positions on the river be permanently held. Better far would it be to sacrifice Richmond, Charleston, Savannah or Mobile than to yield the river, by which the Confederacy will be rent in twain, the West hopelessly cut off from the East, and a vast section of the best producing portion of the country subject to the depredations and spoliations of the enemy. The very thought of such a result is excruciating.

Extensive Repairs to the Steamer "Pacific."—The steamship Pacific is lying at Cowell's wharf undergoing very extensive repairs. She will have her entire upper works removed; her deck frame taken out; a new ceiling throughout, and new topsides. The deck frame is to be made heavier, and the planking of her topsides is to be increased from its present thickness (3 inches) to four inches, which change will greatly increase her strength. The examination of her hull so far has proved very satisfactory, the timbers being perfectly sound. It is believed by the carpenters that but little if any decayed timber will be found in her. The whole cost of the repairs is estimated at about $40,000. She will not be in order to run before three months. The Pacific is diagonally strapped with iron, which is in a good state of preservation.—S. F. Bulletin.

Retaliation.—The Richmond Enquirer has a very long editorial on the subject of retaliation, and pours forth great griefs over the difficulties which beset the matter. It admits that the only chance for retaliation is in accordance with the resolution of the rebel Congress authorizing the putting to death of all white officers found connected with negro regiments. But then, it adds, "the Yankees will in turn hang our officers," and closes with a regular "boo hoo" over the misfortunes of the Confederacy.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to June 13th.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—Considerable opposition is made to the officers under the enrollment act, in Rush county, Indiana. Two Government officers have been shot. A detachment of cavalry has been sent from Indianapolis to put an end to all difficulty. The feeling in that quarter against enrollment officers is intense.

Rebels admit a loss at Port Hudson of 1,500. The Seat of Government of Mississippi is temporarily removed to Enterprise.

It is understood that Vallandigham has gone to some Southern port to leave for Nassau.

BALTIMORE, June 12.—On Wednesday the rebel prisoners on the steamer Maple Leaf sent the captain and crew below and then took the steamer 45 miles below the lighthouse and 50 miles from Fort Monroe, and landed on the Virginia shore. Twenty six rebel officers refused to go with the others. The rebels did no injury to the boat.

CHICAGO, June 13.—A rebel dispatch, dated Jackson, Mississippi, June 5th, says: Pemberton sent word, "I can hold Vicksburg," and tells Gen. Johnston to take his time to organize his troops.

The following are the particulars in regard to the fight at Monticello, June 12th: Col. Kautz's command, consisting of the 7th Ohio cavalry, 2d Ohio and 2d East Tennessee infantry, crossed the river on the night of the 6th. The rebels, under Pegram, were completely surprised. Our troops drove them through Monticello three miles, and then fell back three miles this side of the town, when Pegram's forces overtook our rear guard and the fighting commenced in earnest. We were reinforced by the 2d Tennessee and 45th Ohio, and the whole force again moved on the enemy, who were pressed back a mile, taking their position behind a stone wall, where they made a stubborn resistance and finally compelled our men to fall back fifty yards. The 2d Tennessee was ordered into the woods, where the enemy was spreading his force. This regiment came on at a double quick, dashed into the rebels and forced them back. Our force being inferior in numbers, next morning we crossed to the high land opposite. Losses unknown.

The expedition of Col. Corwin, from Corinth to Florence, Alabama, left on the 26th of May, crossed the Tennessee river on the same night, and proceeded towards Florence, skirmishing and playing the devil generally. On the 28th, five miles from Florence, they came upon a large body of rebels; after a sharp fight the rebels fell back, and we were in possession of the town. Left Florence at dark on homeward march by different directions; marched all night, next day and night, fighting all day; on the 30th we cut our way through a force sent from Bragg to capture us; crossed the river on the same night, and had a fight on the other side, but brought off all of our prisoners, stock, &c., and reached Corinth on the night of the 31st. During this expedition we burned seven cotton factories, costing on average $300,000 each. Jeff. Davis' Confederacy had offered for the largest $1,000,000. Destroyed a large amount of manufactured goods, a number of steam saw and flouring mills, Government works, wagons, arms, a ton of powder, large quantity of arms of English manufacture, 600,000 rounds of ammunition, each cartridge having the English crown stamped upon it, and burned a splendid bridge near Florence. All along the route we marched through fields of wheat, just ripe, which, with an immense amount of forage and provision, were all destroyed. We captured two majors, four lieutenants, 100 men, a large number of mules and oxen, and 1,000 negroes, 250 of whom will go into the negro brigade. Our loss was 30 killed and wounded.

NEW YORK, June 13.—A Raleigh, N. C., journal of the 7th says, we fear the same conflict between the State authorities and the Confederate Government that took place last session of the Legislature is to be renewed. The Governor commands officers of the State to resist by force the arrest of any person claimed as a conscript, who has once been discharged by decision of State Judges. We look with alarm upon these unsettled claims.

NEWBERN, N. C., June 7.—Gen. Foster has received instructions from Washington to place in close confinement all rebel officers captured by him.

NEW YORK, June 13.—Nassau papers are again indignant because the gunboat Rhode Island chased the steamer Margaret & Jessie and steamer Sens within the prescribed limits of maritime law; firing a full broadside at one of them, which plowed the ground and dwellings on shore, and wounded two fishermen.

Advices from New Orleans state that Gen. Sherman is better and will probably recover. Skirmishing is constantly going on at Port Hudson. Our forces are busily engaged in constructing batteries along the entire line which would be completed and opened on the enemy on the 6th. Deserters report but a small force of rebels at Port Hudson.

A special to the Tribune says five deserters came within our lines on the Rappahannock on the 11th and reported Gen. Lee marching with his whole force up the river. This statement is confirmed by other evidence.

INDIAN CUSTOM IN VANCOUVER AND—DIGGING THE "SPAN-OOCH."—
Victoria Chronicle of May 14th remark A curious and beautiful custom is served at this season of the year by Songish Indians. A plant, called in In an the "Span-ooch," is found growing in the fields about the 15th of May.
root of this plant is about the size of
of a tulip, and being nutritious, and clos resembling in taste the sweet potato, highly esteemed by the natives as an arti
of food. So, about the time of year th the Span-ooch is expected to blossom, ea of the marriageable young bucks in the v lage invites his sweetheart to accompa him to the fields and see if the roots of t plants are sufficiently advanced to admit digging. The young folk (who are su posed to be no judges in such matte wander through the fields hand in ha and wherever a Span-ooch flower peeps head above ground, it is plucked, an large boquets have been obtained wh they bear them to the village. In t evening the heads of families meet at o of the lodges and examine the boquets the roots are ripe for digging, a gene turnout occurs. Men, women and childre provided with baskets and short woo spades, proceed to the fields and pass t day in digging for the Span-ooch. The on which first digging occurs is known the Lalla-met Span-ooch, or "the day which we dig the roots," and the succe ing night is made the occasion of much joicing and feasting. The digging for th year commenced yesterday, and the fiel in the vicinity of Victoria contained nu merous groups of men, women and childre busily engaged in the hunt. The Spa ooch season will last about four weeks.

DR. D. JAYNE'S
EXPECTORANT
AND SANATIVE PILLS

Have been before the public so long, and found such general favor in every region of country where they have been sold, (and there is no place on the civilized globe where they have not been sold) that it would seem almost superfluous at this time to direct attention to them through the medium of the press. Yet it is due to suffering humanity, and especially to that numerous class who, in the changeable climate of the Pacific Coast, suffer from

Diseases of the Lungs & Throat, indicating and ending in CONSUMPTION, many of whom may not have used this remedy, that they should be allowed to read of some of the cases where its influence has been useful in remedying complaints from which they are suffering. The EXPECTORANT

Operates immediately upon the Disease,
SURELY AND SPEEDILY ERADICATING IT, while the SANATIVE PILLS, by preserving regularity in the bowels, and giving a healthy tone to the other internal organs, aid and assist the perfect operation of the former.

Attention is asked to the following Certificates, selected at random from the mass in the possession of the proprietors:

Upper Uwchland, Chester Co. Pa, Sept 15, 1858.
Dr D. Jayne—Having been afflicted with ASTHMA and BRONCHITIS, and having the advice of some of the most eminent physicians, whose skillful treatment of my case did not prove to be of any avail, I obtained no relief for my suffering until I commenced the use of your EXPECTORANT. After taking it for about three months, I was entirely cured.
NATHAN PENNYPACKER.

Astoria, Long Island, Jan 15, 1860.
L. W. Tinelli, Esq. New York—Sir: As you well know I had been afflicted with BRONCHITIS, accompanied with the most painful tightness of the chest, and great difficulty in breathing for nearly two months, and I had almost lost all confidence in the power of medical science, when at your friendly suggestion, I began the well known (but not enough known) "EXPECTORANT" of Dr. Jayne, of Philadelphia. Three or four days after having commenced to take it my cough had nearly subsided, the expectoration was easy, and the breathing quite free.
I am now quite another man, and my general health has never been better.
I remain, my dear Tinelli, with esteem your servant and friend,
J. B. MONTE.

Winfield, Tuscarawas Co. O., May 22, 1860.
Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: One bottle of your Expectorant cured my daughter of the LUNG FEVER, after having been beyond the hopes of recovery. During the attack she had a number of convulsions. She is now perfectly well.
J. H. COFFMAN.

Burlington, Bradford Co, Pa, July 23, 1863.
Dr. D. Jayne—Dear Sir: My son was for one and a half years afflicted with a disease resembling CONSUMPTION. For two years he was not able to labor. He was finally induced to try your EXPECTORANT and PILLS, and after taking 10 bottles and some PILLS, was completely cured, and is now able to labor every day.
JOHN HENRY.

We would add to the above that we sold to Mr Henry the medicine for his son, and know that the statement is true.
MERRY, WILHELM & CO.

For a greater number and variety of certificates, and fuller information regarding these and other of Dr D. Jayne's and Son's Preparations, reference is given to the ANNUAL ALMANAC, which may be had from any Druggist or Dealer in Medicines.

DR. BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short tim

"Democratic Meeting at Walla Walla

WALLA WALLA, June 10th, 186[illegible]

EDIT R OREGONIAN :

You are aware that the county of Walla Walla did not s[illegible]n delegates to the Democratic Convention at Vancouver Accordingly it was announced with great flourish that the democracy would hold a ratification meeting which came off to-day Armstrong an old sub Indian Agent under Buchanan, and an avowed c[illegible]pperhead was called to the chair Cole, not being able to be present, had engaged a fellow by the name of Dugan to speak for and represent him on the occasion By the way, Dugan was the chief obstacle to sending delegates to the Vancouver Convention because those knaves and scoundrels from the Sound were sure to cheat them He was down on the clam eaters he did not wish any communion with them He said many things funny, furious, ludicrous and diabolical of the clam eaters and broke up the Convention in a row But let us hear Dugan He said "He should not make an elaborate speech as so few from the country were in (very true, Dugan!) but he thought it right that people should meet and discuss public questions, and he did not mean to be deterred by the myrmidons of this despotic Administration He believed in free speech, in freedom of the press, in the writ of habeas corpus in those old rights extorted by the barons of England from King John He believed in Magna Carta in the liberties secured to us by the bloody foot prints of the Revolution and believing in them, he would maintain them at all hazards and to the last resort The democracy were rising to rebuke Abraham Lincoln for tramping under foot these God given rights, to rebuke Abraham Lincoln, who, in my opinion, is alike destitute of capacity or honor for he has in plain violation of his solemn oath, wantonly trampled under foot every syllable and every letter of that holy instrument, the Constitution, which secures liberty to the citizen Citizens without law and against law, without form of trial, had been hurried by the edicts of an irresponsible chief to arsenals and garrisons and foul dungeons I demand that they shall be tried by due process of law, and by a jury of their peers No doubt the South were to blame for seceding, but their wrongs were of such a character, and of so long continuance, that they were nearly unendurable, and for all the oceans of blood shed in this unholy war Mr Lincoln more than any other is responsible But, fellow citizens, these things cannot last forever Retributive justice will overtake these men who now control and govern this country with despotic sway I do not advise, the democracy do not propose, to resist the Administration by force of arms, but Mr Lincoln may yet be torn from his high position, find himself a prisoner at the bar of Congress, there to be impeached for an lawful and arbitrary exercise of power And should not this take place the avenging pen of history will place the name of Lincoln high upon the scroll of infamy, high among the slaughterers and murderers of the human race, by the side of Murat, Danton Robespierre Hundreds and thousands, and hundreds of thousands of the sightless denizens of the grove, are unceasingly calling down imprecations on his head and maledictions on his memory If Abraham Lincoln wishes to escape the curses which will rest on his head, let him recall his proclamation of freedom to the slaves, let him open the book of the Constitution which he has so often violated, and be governed by the letter there laid down, let him say to our friends, (wrong doing, it must be confessed) come enjoy in peace all the rights this instrument confers—let us be men and brothers These people cannot be forced back by arms, these questions must be compromised But let me not be misunderstood I am an unconditional Union man, and I believe Geo E Cole is also, I know he is unconditionally loyal Though I hate that word loyal, a word of European extraction, fit only for a court where kings abide, and is entirely out of place in a country of republican rule, but I know Geo E Cole is unconditionally in favor of the Union"

Dugan said that if he had inadvertently said anything which those who supported Cole did not approve, he wished they would say so So far as he knew the sentiments expressed were those of Cole, and he understood they were those of the democracy That he had agreed, in accordance with Mr Cole's solicitations, to stump the Sound country, (didn't say clam-eaters this time, but sound country) and he wished to start right There was no response to this Dugan was interrupted by four men stamping their feet two or three times, and while he was speaking of the retribution sure to overtake Lincoln, one enthusiastic Cole man said, "Thank God for that!"

Lassater, formerly of Oregon then spoke Said that democracy was misunderstood; that democracy had nothing to do with niggers, or any of those questions over which people get so much excited That the democratic party started in 1817, and was anti tariff, anti-bank, anti monopoly, but not anti slavery that duties should be ad valorem and not specific That this Administration was in favor of specific duties, therefore he opposed it That they tried to pass a bankrupt law, that Bush said they run to a bankrupt law as certainly as water run down hill That he understood Cole to be anti tariff, anti-bank, anti monopoly, and anti-bankrupt, and therefore he voted for him (Some wag remarked that he did not know about the anti bankrupt part,)

The vote was then taken to ratify the nomination of Cole, for which just five voted It was then proposed to appoint a central committee Anderson Cox formerly of Oregon was proposed for one of said committee Anderson arose and said "That he commenced voting for Jackson before he was twenty one, that for a great many years he had been a good democrat,—that is, he had stood square on the platform and voted for the nominee, but since this rebellion commenced he had been for the Union with out a prefix" "I intend to live by it and if need be die by it" "To be candid with you, gentlemen, as to your democracy I am not on it After this war is over, I am willing to discuss measures and divide on them, but while this rebellion lasts, stabbing at the national life, I am not on it It will be time enough to make rules to live by when we are sure we live No, sir I am not on it" There was no committee appointed, and the meeting adjourned

The plain truth is, the elements would not mingle One of the men who signed the ratification call had a party on the 8th of January last, at which toasts were freely drank hoping that on the 8th of January 1864 the Confederate flag might float in triumph over both North and South Bill Ferry, Dr Harris, Louis Mullan, Porter, Armstrong, and Kane are the great lights of Democracy here, and they openly rejoice over the discomfiture of our armies Some of these shining orbs of Democracy have left for Boise Mr Cole himself will not deny that Dr Harris, who openly rejoiced when Hooker fell back who is in the habit of saying that he considered "Jeff Davis a d—d sight better Union man than Abe Lincoln," took an active part in the first convention here

What is Mr Cole's party in the States?—Does Vallandigham belong to it? Does Jesse D Bright belong to it? Do all those who aid and sympathise with the rebellion belong to it Do the Knights of the Golden Circle vote his ticket? Does Mr Cole rejoice when he hears that the Union party carries States at home, or did he shout over the great moral and political uprising of Ben Wood and the Five Points By all methods of reasoning known amongst men if Gabriel should consort with his own free will and accord with the denizens of hell, he should be called and recognized as a devil and if any man now makes his bed with secessionists and copperheads, he should be classed with copperheads I have never heard Mr Cole say a word about public matters, but judging from his political associates and supports if he succeeds in this canvass there will be rejoicing in Hell and at Richmond John Van Buren says "if you want to see Copperheads shake the habeas corpus The fact that Dugan could stand as he did and denounce as he did the government which has ever been known only by its blessings shows that he is a falsifier Who has been immured in Fortresses that the gal lows does not ache for? Was it Gwin or Benham or the proprietors of the Chapman or Vallandigham, or some of the Knights of the Golden Circle or was it the rebel women who screened under female apparel rebel correspondence As well Dugan might a skunk find fault because he was throttled for distributing his perfume in your kitchen, or those other insects which he so much resembles, who find their death between the thumb nail and a fine tooth comb

Let me say to the people of Washington Territory that your Congressman has no vote, he goes to Washington a suppliant, and you might as well send a naked Stake Indian to ask favors for you as a man animated and supported by a party in sworn hostility to the Administration Do you want mails, send a friend of the Postmaster General If you want your great land interests subserved and attended to send a friend of the Secretary of the Interior If you ask favors send a friend not an enemy Do not separate yourselves from the rest of the Pacific delegation California is Union Oregon is Union, Washington must be Allow me to say in conclusion, that I know nothing of Rayner; have never seen Cole but a few times, as he has been living at Lewiston until within a short time I have not been long here myself as I crossed the plains last year, but Cole is in the wrong wagon

Yours

"My bloomin' hero," sez I, "I guess you air about rite The Butternuts air mean traiters, but the Northern C H's air a infernal site the meanester!"

"That's so!" sez the tenth corporil's clerk, slippin a ace up his kote sleeve

I left 'em 2 thare innersent pastime and propeld—propeld a little too much, for I wandered outside the Fedral lines, and surrounded 2 secesh pickets and took 'em prisoners The F F V's—these F F V's don't mean Five Foolish Virgins,—scarcely the F F V's objected to accompanyin me, so I follered them Considerin they was my prisoners, they used me pretty roughly But its thare way I follered the chaps nearly to Richmun, when sum shivilries got a squint at me They commenst immediately for to hold thare nose's shet, and sum pulled off thare shoes and stockins, as ef I was goin to lick thare feet

"Keep a respectable distanz!" sez one

"Yes, I will—to keep respectable" Those was my sarcastic retort

"Beg your pardin!" apologized the F F V's, puttin on thare shoes & stockins and takin thare digits from the nasal organs "We thort you was one of them Nurthren Copperheaded peas men, who air allers wantin to lick our feet and make up with us"

"Nary peas men" sez I "I'm in favor ov a vigrus prosecootion ov the war Ditto my friend A L"

"Well," sez they, "we hav sum respeck for a Yankee wot stans up fer his Guv'ment, but the blowy Vallandighammers, Woodses, Hughses, and so-4ths, we think a little lower than a runaway nigger If they was locked up by your Guv'ment, we'd rejoice They are not only traitors to the North, but to the South 2"

"I allers considered 'em so too—except to the South Ditto my friend A L"

I apologized for captoorin thare 2 pickets and they released me on a parole ov honor—whatever that is I blieve ef they wood behave themselves and not drink too much whisky, they wood be as good Union men as the rebels Jist about

At one time during the day in a pit near at hand I heard a rebel snap his gun several times; but it missed fire much to his disgust, for I could hear him swear when it failed to go off One of our men, amused at his perplexity, called out :

"Hello, Reb ! where did you get your percussion caps?"

"They are Northern Copperheads," was his quick response

"Oh! what shall I do if John is drafted?" said a young girl to her grandmother, while thinking that perhaps her lover might be obliged to shoulder his musket and go to the war "Do" said the old lady, her venerable eyes sparkling with the light of other days "do as I did for Nathan the last time the red coats came over here Make coarse shirts and pantaloons for him"

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely vegetable,) hosts of Ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which instead of curing only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public; and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,

LAWYERS

PHYSICIANS

CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?

Do you want a good appetite?

Do you want to build up your constitution?

Do you want to feel well?

Do you want to get rid of nervousness?

Do you want energy?

Do you want to sleep well?

Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects, I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

J. NEWTON BROWN.

PHILADELPHIA, June 23, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed.

This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get one bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23, 1862.

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
